Fellow Woodworkers

Jeff Madden

By Ronald McKeever

Jeff has been a member of our club for about 3 years and enjoys the meetings and camaraderie with fellow woodworkers. He has done many remodeling projects for friends and relatives as well as smaller woodworking projects. His interest in woodworking goes back to his youth, as his dad and grandpa both had a knack for building things.

After his high school graduation in North Branch Minnesota, Jeff attended St. Cloud State University and received his college degree in Criminal Justice and Biology. Jeff joined the Army Reserve while in college but soon afterward took a job in Sales with Royal Tire. He worked there for 9 years before a 3-year stint with Mathew Hall Lumber. Jeff has recently started a new career in sales with an insurance company in Sauk Rapids.

Jeff lives with his wife, Jodi, and 2 daughters in East St. Cloud. He is currently working on one of his largest projects, an oak bed, including a headboard and footboard with walnut inlay. In the near future, Jeff would like to expand his shop, but for now he has to share his space with his automobiles.

Jeff built this bed/playhouse for his daughters.

CMWA Meeting Recap

Sauk Rapids-Rice Middle School October 20th, 2004 at 7PM Recap adapted from secretary's meeting minutes

• Anatole Burkin, Fine Woodworking Magazine:

The CMWA group met at the Sauk Rapids Middle School, room 916 for a great presentation by Anatole Burkin, Executive Editor of Fine Woodworking Magazine, which has a circulation of 300,000.

Anatole gave a fantastic speech on how his woodworking magazine is put together each month, how articles are selected, how artwork is created, and what it takes to assemble each month's publication. He also shared some of the letters he has received from his readers over the years.

Anatole encourages those who are interested to submit articles to Fine Woodworking for publication. He went on to offer pointers on article submission and topics.

His presentation was not only highly educational but both informative and interesting as well.

Thanks Anatole for your fantastic contribution to the CMWA, and for taking the time to show an interest in our club. We appreciate what you've shared with us.

November Meeting

Our November meeting will feature a guest speaker from Brainerd, Clem Sauer. Clem will be demonstrating the fine art of the scroll saw. Clem brought a couple of his creations to the January meeting and has agreed to share some of his techniques with the group. We are looking forward to learning more about the scroll saw.

Our New Permanent Home

The Sauk Rapids – Rice School District has kindly allowed to the CMWA to use one of their shop facilities for future meetings. We will be meeting at our new home at the Sauk Rapids – Rice Middle School. The old Mississippi Heights Middle School is now an elementary school and the new middle school is in the old high school.

We will need to enter the Middle School through the back of the building. The room number is 916. See the map for more details.

Projects on Display

Brad Knowles brought in this beautiful wall shelf that he had carved from butternut.

Brad estimated that he had put about 20 hours into the project which is quite amazing considering the amount of detail.

From the Past:

Clem Sauer will be demonstrating his scroll saw skills during the November meeting. He showcased these works of art at our January 2004 meeting.

The Loss of a Fellow Woodworker

Some of you will remember Tedd Helberg. He and his daughter-in-law, Andrine Lemieux joined our club in December last year. I received word from Andrine in July that Tedd had been diagnosed with metastatic cancer. Unfortunately, Tedd past away in September after a very short battle with his cancer. Andrine said that Tedd had enjoyed the meetings and felt welcome from day one. Our sympathy goes out to his wife and family.
