Hilte Tools

During April's CMWA meeting, a presentation was given by Hilte Tools representative Greg Thuringer. Greg gave an interesting presentation on the various lines of Hilti Tools, as well as some of the newer power tools now available from Hilti Tools.

Greg demonstrated one of their new tools is a new hybrid circular saw, the WSC 267-E.

Greg also showed off Hilti's WSJ 850-ET Orbital Action Jig Saw.

Hilti is a long established European company located in Lichtenstein (near Germany). Hilti has now expanded into the cordless tool market as well and manufactures many quality commercial grade tools.

Demonstrating Hilti's WGS 1400-2 Guide Rail, Greg showed how the guide makes quick work of sheets of plywood.

Home Depot is the local dealer of Hilti Tools for those seeking to try a new Hilti Tool. The CMWA would like to thank Greg for sharing his knowledge of Hilti tools.
