Greetings from Charlie Meyer

Winter is here! Time to trade the lawnmower for the snow shovel. Hopefully we will now have more time to enjoy woodworking.

As we get closer to 2015, only seven weeks away, we continue to have some loose ends to tie up. We need to fill two important positions for 2015, President and marketing director. Tim Du Bois is considering the position of Secretary. Thank you Tim!

Below is the CMWA board as of now.

- President open
- Secretary Tim Dubois
- Treasurer Kurt Zniewski
- Director at large, 2 year term, Larry Sampson
- Director at large, 2 year term, Shawn Jarvis
- Director at large, 1 year term, Devin Middendorf
- Director at large, 1 year term, Rollie Johnson
- Marketing director Open
- Website manager, Darren Mc Keever (current)
- Librarian, Brad Knowles
- Meeting hosts, Eddie Och, Angelo Gambrino, (current)

Please consider the opportunity to help lead the CMWA to a fruitful 2015 season.

Wood Expo, planning is moving forward on the 2015 event. Charlie Gunderson is currently the only CMWA member on that committee. Our group, the CMWA will be chairing the Wood Expo in 2016. We need another member to serve with Charlie on that committee.

Art Crawl, the final Art Crawl event will be held in the lobby of the Paramount theater Friday Nov. 14th, 5:00 to 9:00 pm. We will be showing the finished Shaker table along with the presentation Don Wade developed. Members are invited to participate, bring a project or item you have crafted. This is an opportunity to show our community the work of the CMWA. Thank you to Don Wade for his great work making the 2014 Art Crawl project a success.

Good news concerning the tall case clock! It will have a new home at the St. Cloud Hospital, Gorecki guest house. We will be delivering it the second week of December. We will confirm the time in the next day or two.

Our December meeting is also our Christmas gathering. We plan to have a bit of good holiday treats and a silent auction. The auction will include the Shaker tables built for the Art Crawl project. We are also asking members to bring any items, tools, crafted items, or any other suitable items for the auction. If possible, bring a description and estimated value to our November meeting. All proceeds will benefit the CMWA.

Activity for our November meeting, "Jointer Set-up" presented by Rollie Johnson.

Next meeting, Wednesday, Nov. 19th 7:00 pm at the Paramount.

Bring a friend and an item for "show and tell".

See you Wednesday!
