HAPPY NEW YEAR TO ALL!!! from Charlie Meyer

Now that the holidays are over, and hopefully we have all recovered, it's time to get back to our woodworking. It is also time to move forward with our CMWA activities of 2015. We have many exciting activities planned for this year. Let's start with the Art Crawl. Shawn Jarvis has volunteered to lead this season's project. She has selected "small neighborhood libraries" A great idea! a project that could involve a large number members, promote our relationship with the Paramount, display the work of our members in our neighborhoods and promote reading! A winner for all involved! Thank you Shawn.

As we are involved in the CMWA to learn and to enhance our skills, we have planned the following educational topics for our monthly meetings.

Jan	Elections, Review the past year, Bring shop made jig's	July	Picnic
Feb	Scroll saw demo	Aug	Discover antique tools
Mar	Box joint construction	Sep	Project lay-out and planning
Apr	Band saw set-up	Oct	Steam bending
May	Veneer and inlay's	Nov	Shop safety
June	Hollows and rounds	Dec	Christmas party and silent auction

As noted above, our January meeting is loaded with club business. Election of officers and board members. We have been fortunate to have many members volunteer for many of the positions Below are the folks we will be voting for.
